Tracking Technologies and Cookies

The Company uses Cookies and similar tracking technologies to track the activity on the Service and store certain information. Tracking technologies used are beacons, tags, and scripts to collect and track information and to improve and analyze the Service. The technologies the Company uses may include:

- Cookies or Browser Cookies. A cookie is a small file placed on your Device. You can instruct your browser to refuse all Cookies or to indicate when a Cookie is being sent. However, if you do not accept Cookies, you may not be able to use some parts of the Service. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse Cookies, the Service may use Cookies.
- Flash Cookies. Certain features of the Service may use local stored objects (or Flash Cookies) to collect and store information about your preferences or your activity on the Service. Flash Cookies are not managed by the same browser settings as those used for Browser Cookies. For more information on how you can delete Flash Cookies, please read, "Where can I change the settings for disabling, or deleting local shared objects?" available at https://helpx.adobe.com/flash-player/kb/disable-local-shared-objects-flash.html#main_Where_can_I_change_the_settings_for_disabling_or_deleting_local_shared_objects
- Web Beacons. Certain sections of the Service and Company emails may contain small electronic files known as web beacons (also referred to as clear gifs, pixel tags, and single-pixel gifs) that permit the Company, for example, to count users who have visited those pages or opened an email and for other related website statistics (for example, recording the popularity of a certain section and verifying system and server integrity).

Cookies can be "Persistent" or "Session" Cookies. Persistent Cookies remain on your personal computer or mobile device when you go offline, while Session Cookies are deleted as soon as you close your web browser.

Use of Your Personal Data

The Company has strict security measures and protection to prevent unauthorized access or use of Personal Data, submitted to the Company. Such Personal Data will be used only for the following purposes:

To provide and maintain our Service, including to monitor the usage of our Service.

For the performance of a contract. The development, compliance and undertaking of the purchase contract for the products, items or services you have purchased or of any other contract with the Company through the Service.

For contacting you. To contact you by email, telephone calls, SMS, or other equivalent forms of electronic communication, such as a mobile application's push notifications regarding updates or informative communications related to the functionalities, products or contracted services, including the security updates, when necessary or reasonable for their implementation.

To provide you with news, special offers and general information about other goods, services and events, which we offer that are similar to those that you have already purchased or enquired about, unless you have opted not to receive such information.

To attend and manage your requests to the Company.

For other purposes. The Company may use your information for other purposes, such as data analysis, identifying usage trends, determining the effectiveness of our promotional campaigns and to evaluate and improve our Service, products, services, marketing and your experience.

We may share your personal information in the following situations:

- For compliance with laws or regulations (e.g. tax laws), exercising legal claims, or compliance with a court order or public authority.
- With affiliates. The Company may share your information with its affiliates, in which case it will require those affiliates to honor this Privacy Policy. Affiliates include our parent company and any other subsidiaries, joint venture partners or other companies that the Company controls or that are under common control therewith.
- With your consent. The Company may disclose your personal information for any other purpose with your consent.

Retention of Your Personal Data

The Company will retain your Personal Data only for as long as is necessary for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy. We will retain and use your Personal Data to the extent necessary to comply with our legal obligations (for example, if we are required to retain your data to comply with applicable laws), resolve disputes, and enforce our legal agreements and policies.

The Company will also retain Usage Data for internal analysis purposes. Usage Data is generally retained for a shorter period of time, except when this data is used to strengthen the security or to improve the functionality of our Service, or we are legally obligated to retain this data for longer time periods.

If it is not possible to specify the Personal Data retention period, the Company will retain the Personal Data as may be expected per data retention standards, such as the legal prescription of 10 years.

Transfer of Your Personal Data

Your information, including Personal Data, is processed at the Company's operating offices and in any other places where the parties involved in the processing are located. It means that this information may be transferred to — and maintained on — computers located outside of your state, province, country or other governmental jurisdiction, where the data protection laws may differ from those in your jurisdiction.

Your consent to this Privacy Policy followed by your submission of such information represents your agreement to that transfer.

The Company will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Policy and no transfer of your Personal Data will take place to an organization or a country, unless there are adequate controls in place including the security of your data and other personal information.

Disclosure of Your Personal Data

Business Transactions

If the Company is involved in a merger, acquisition or asset sale, your Personal Data may be transferred. We will provide notice before your Personal Data is transferred and becomes subject to a different Privacy Policy.

Law enforcement

Under certain circumstances, the Company may be required to disclose your Personal Data, if required to do so by law or in response to valid requests by public authorities (e.g. a court or a government agency).

Other legal requirements

The Company may disclose Your Personal Data in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to:

- Comply with a legal obligation
- Protect and defend the rights or property of the Company
- Prevent or investigate possible wrongdoing in connection with the Service
- Protect the personal safety of users of the Service or the public
- Protect against legal liability

Security of Your Personal Data

The security of your Personal Data is important to us. However, no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure. While the Company strives to use commercially acceptable means to protect your Personal Data, it cannot guarantee their absolute security.

Your Rights

You have the following rights, as prescribed in the PDPA:

- Right to withdraw consent as stipulated by law;
- Right of access to your own Personal Data;
- Right to request for the dissemination or transfer of your Personal Data (right to data portability);
- Right to object to the collection, use, or disclosure of Personal Data;
- Right to request the erasure of Personal Data (right to be forgotten);
- Right to restrict the use of Personal Data;
- Right to request for the correction of the Personal Data;
- Right to be informed in the event that the Privacy Notice has been amended; and
- Right to complain to authorized officials, as prescribed by the PDPA.

Once you lodge your request to exercise your rights, the Company will proceed within the time period as required by the Act. However, the Company reserves the right to deny or refuse to proceed with the request, if required by law. In addition, if you chose to provide the Company only certain Personal Data, the Company may not be able to provide you with its full services.

Children's Privacy

Our Service does not address anyone under the age of 13. The Company does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from anyone under the age of 13. If you are a parent or guardian and you are aware that your child has provided the Company with Personal Data, please contact us. If we become aware that we have collected Personal Data from anyone under the age of 13 without verification of parental consent, we will take steps to remove that information from our servers.

If the Company needs to rely on consent as a legal basis for processing your information and your country requires consent from a parent, we may require your parent's consent before we collect and use that information.

Links to Other Websites

Our Service will contain links to other websites that are not operated by the Company. If you click on a third-party link, you will be directed to that third party's site. We strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy of every site you visit.

The Company has no control over and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies or practices of any third-party sites or services.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

The Company may, from time to time, review this Privacy Policy to comply with legal guidelines and applicable laws. In case there are any changes to its Privacy Policy, the Company will provide a public notification through the appropriate channels.

Data Protection Officer

The Company has appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO) to review the Company's collection, use and disclosure of Personal Data to ensure compliance with the PDPA and related laws.
